DORIS O'DONNELL, friendly and cooperative feature writer for "The Plain Dealer", Cleveland morning newspaper, is proceeding to Dallas on 12/3/63 for the purpose of preparing a series of articles on the human-interest phase of this case.

She stated she would like to talk to SAC J. Gordon Shanklin or the ASAC. She states she does not desire any confidential information, but would like some angles that she might pursue.

If convenient, it would be appreciated if you or ASAC Clark would see her and aid her in any way possible.
